Director's Note

People are often surprised to learn how much I adore this musical. But what's not to like? The music is outstanding. It's a great convergence of multiple stories from the Dr. Seussiverse. And its relevance resonates -

Think Big: Use imagination and be willing to think new and big thinks - like JoJo does.

Listen with Compassion: Be willing to hear the small voices around us calling for help - the ignored, the helpless, the marginalized. Know that every person is important - like Horton does.

Value the Heart: Understand that it is by staying true to ourselves that we are ultimately most valuable - like Gertrude does.

Be Thankful: Recognize the gifts we are given on a regular basis - like The Cat does.

Some pretty great life lessons from America's silliest author. But perhaps most importantly, Dr. Seuss believed in kids. He had faith that passionate young thinkers can commit to making the world a better place. Having spent the last few months with these 70+ young thinkers, I'm very optimistic.

We hope you enjoy our production of Seussical, and as always, thank you for your support of the performing arts.
